ELIGIBILITY FOR UNDERGRADUATE
EOP APPLICATION FEE WAIVERS

I. REFERENCE:

University of California Planning and Budget Manual, Section 6080, page 13.

II. POLICY:

The fee required in filing applications for new admission, re-admission, and inter-campus transfer (undergraduate standing only) may be waived for those students who qualify under the guidelines of low-income families.

- A. A fee waiver is to be approved by the appropriate EOP Associate Director or Admissions Officer only when family income is at the levels specified annually by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, transmitted to the campuses by the College Entrance Examination Board.
- B. Family financial information is to be submitted with the application.
- C. Membership in family receiving subsidized public welfare, residence in a federally subsidized public housing project, or enrollment in such programs as Upward Bound, Talent Search, the Neighborhood Youth Corps, or other local and state programs intended to aid students who are economically disadvantaged, can also justify a student's eligibility.
