II. POLICY:

A. Definitions:

For the purposes of this policy, the following definitions apply:

1. Regular Academic Year: The first day of pre-instructional activities for Fall Quarter, as published in the Schedule of Classes, through the last day of Commencement in Spring Quarter, excluding breaks.

2. Classrooms: Rooms for organized classes which do not require special-purpose equipment for student use. Classrooms are typically, but not necessarily, equipped with tablet armchairs or similar types of seating.

3. Assembly Rooms: Rooms equipped for theatrical performances although they are also used for class lectures.

4. Athletic/Recreational Facilities: Rooms or indoor areas used by students, staff, and/or the public for athletic activities and such rooms as directly serve such athletic activities as extensions of the activities in such a facility. For the purpose of this policy, outdoor areas used for such activities are also considered to be athletic facilities (including the Main Pool, all athletic fields, Pauley Track, the campus tennis courts, the Campus Diamond, the volleyball courts and Harder Stadium).

5. Conference Rooms: Meeting rooms ordinarily used by other than organized classes for formal discussions. May have lounge-type furniture, straight-back chairs and/or tablet armchairs. May be generally assignable or departmentally assigned.

6. Academic Programs: Listed in order of priority.
a. All classes scheduled during the regular academic year (as reflected in the Quarterly Schedule of Classes).

b. All additional (extra, make-up or special) sessions of a. (above).

c. Additional rooms needed for mid-terms or final examinations of a. (above).
