SKATEBOARDING AND ROLLERSKATING

I. REFERENCES:

- A. State of California Vehicle Code (1986 Edition), Sections 21113(f), 21967, 21968, and 21969.
- B. UCSB Campus Regulations Applying to Campus Activities, Organizations and Students, Chapter V: Student Conduct and Discipline.

II. POLICY:

- A. Skateboards and rollerskates on University property are permitted when used primarily for transportation.
- B. Skateboarding and rollerskating are permitted on open walkways provided they do not constitute a hazard to pedestrians, bicyclists or disabled persons, disrupt classes or damage property. (Skateboarding and rollerskating are prohibited on covered walks, bikeways, roads, parking lots, underpasses, interior courtyards, inside buildings, exterior balconies, stairs and handicapped ramps.)
- C. Skateboards and rollerskates may be carried (but not ridden) into campus buildings and classrooms as long as they do not create an obstruction/ trip hazard or damage University property.
- D. Skateboard riders and rollerskaters must use extreme caution at all times when traveling on campus and remain mindful of the rights of others for a safe campus environment.
- E. Skateboarders and rollerskaters may not be towed by bicycles or other vehicles.
- F. Skateboarding and rollerskating are prohibited while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage and/or mobility impairing drug.
- G. Wearing radio/cassette headphones while skateboarding and rollerskating is prohibited.
- H. Skateboarders and rollerskaters will be subject to disciplinary action for failure to stop at the scene of an accident where they have been involved in property damage and/or injury. Identification must be presented to the other party and the accident reported to the University Police Department.
- I. University Police, or their designees, may enforce the law pursuant to the California Vehicle Code. The University may seek compensatory damages if University property is damaged or destroyed. If the involved party is a student, he or she may be subject to disciplinary action by the Dean of Students Office.
