DISPLAY OF ART AND ART OBJECTS

I. REFERENCES

- A. Minutes of Meeting, Physical Planning Committee, February 13, 1973.
- B. UCSB Policies Manual, Policy 5506, Defacement of Interior Surfaces.

II. POLICY:

Art and art objects (including but not limited to paintings, sculpture and murals) may be displayed either temporarily or permanently on the UCSB campus only as indicated below:

- A. The Art Objects Subcommittee will review and recommend to the Physical Planning Committee on the art, the location and the display design of all art objects, except those to be displayed in individual offices, the University Art Museum, or in display cases, which must be approved by the department concerned. These works may not be displayed "for sale." (The Art Objects Subcommittee will consult with the requester as necessary and will notify the Campus Planning Committee of its recommendation.)
- B. The University will bear no responsibility for these works. An Agreement for display of art and art objects must be signed in the Business Services Office for all art work displayed, except that to be shown in individual offices, the University Art Museum, or in display cases.
- C. In accordance with the University of California at Santa Barbara Campus Regulations Applying to Campus Activities, Organizations and Students, commercial advertisements, posters and literature are not permitted to be posted on campus. Except as specifically permitted, non-University organizations or persons are not permitted to post on campus.
- D. Physical damage to walls, etc., must be avoided. See UCSB Policy 5506. Upon advice of the Art Objects Subcommittee, the Facilities Management Department may be asked to participate in arranging the display. The cost of such work shall be borne by the department sponsoring the display, including any restoration costs.
