REVOCABLE LICENSE TO USE THE NAME or SEAL or LOGO OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SANTA BARBARA

WHEREAS, Education Code of the State of California Section 92000 prohibits the use of the name of the University of California, or any abbreviation of this name or any name of which the name "University of California" is a part, for certain purposes; and

WHEREAS, Enter name of organization (hereinafter referred to as Licensee) is desirous of using the name or seal or logo of the University of California, Santa Barbara or an abbreviation thereof, in the following style and for the following purpose:

Describe how the display of the name, seal or logo will look; the context for its use; the time frame for the use; and the purpose. As appropriate, attach a mock-up of how the name, seal, or logo will be used.

NOW THEREFORE, The Regents of the University of California agrees to and does hereby grant a revocable license to Licensee to use the name, seal, or logo of the University of California, Santa Barbara only and expressly in the style and for the purpose to which reference hereinabove has been made.

In consideration of the granting of this revocable license, Licensee agrees to indemnify and hold harmless The Regents of the University of California, officers, employees, servants, or agents thereof, from any and all liability arising from the use of the name pursuant to this license.

Licensee also agrees that in the exercise of this license, it will not state or imply either directly or indirectly that the licensee or the licensee's activities are supported, endorsed, or sponsored by the licensor and, upon the direction of the licensor, shall issue express disclaimers to that effect. Licensee agrees to comply fully with the UCSB policy, Use of the University's Name (attached).
