II. POLICY:

- A. Students will be required to pay the Educational Fee for every quarter in which they register.
- B. Waivers, exemptions and reduction of the Educational Fee are limited to the classes of the students specified in this policy:
 - 1. University employees who enroll in regular session courses are required to pay one-third of the Educational Fee; see UCSB Policy 5800.
 - 2. Students who enroll under the High School--University Special Program are required to pay one-third of the Educational Fee.
 - 3. Eligible veterans' dependents are exempted from payment of the Educational Fee under provisions of Section 10652 of the Education Code.
 - 4. Candidates for Masters and Doctors degrees who are eligible to pay only the "filing fee" are not required to pay the Educational Fee.
 - 5. Surviving children of a police or fire suppression officer who was a California resident and who died as a result of his official duties are exempt from payment of the Educational Fee under provisions of Section 23060 of the Education Code. (The Regents approved this exemption November, 1970, to become effective in the Fall Quarter, 1971.)
